3. Description of the profile focus

In accordance with the curriculum, section 1.1 the student who completes the profile will obtain the same competency through academic and practical focus as described below:

Professional focus

The focus area of the profile is development of enterprises with a special focus on the external stakeholders of the firm, especially the customers. Masters with this profile has therefore expanded their knowledge within the subjects that are relevant for this: innovation management, framework conditions of the firm, buyer behavior as well as strategy and competition. Further, the master has knowledge about and skills in using methods which can support development of the enterprise and especially as regards market opportunities: research methodology of the social sciences and qualitative methods, project management, and quantitative market research methods. Finally, the master has gained competences in defining and establishing own learning through independent work with a seminar and the master's thesis as well as managing and taking on responsibility in complex working situations.

4. Other regulations

4.1 Language

The programme is offered in English. If the teacher and the co-examiner or external examiner is Danish speaking, the student can choose to take the exam in Danish.

4.2 Project-oriented studies and studying abroad

Project-oriented studies and studying abroad is recommended to take place in the 3rd semester of the programme. Internship can replace up to 15 ECTS electives. An internship must be pre-approved by the profile responsible and finally approved by the study board after the internship period. Further information regarding internship and study abroad period can be found at www.sdu.dk.

4.3 Semester structure

The programme runs in quarters. This means that each semester is split in quarters in the following way:

1. Semester
 - First quarter: Weeks 36-44 (fall holiday week 42). Exam week 45.
 - Second quarter: Weeks 46-02 (Christmas holiday week 52/53). Exam weeks 3-4.
2. Semester
